

BRITISH COLUMBIA REVIEW BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF PART XX.1 (Mental Disorder) OF THE CRIMINAL CODE
R.S.C. 1985 c.-46, as amended S.C. 2005 c. 22

IN THE MATTER OF KEN JOHN JOHNSON a.k.a. ALLAN DWAYNE SCHOENBORN

DISPOSITION

On February 22, 2010 Ken John JOHNSON a.k.a. Allan Dwayne SCHOENBORN (the accused) was found not criminally responsible on account of mental disorder by the Supreme Court of British Columbia at Kamloops on three counts of first degree murder contrary to section 235 of the Criminal Code and was ordered held in custody at the Forensic Psychiatric Hospital until disposition by the British Columbia Review Board (The Review Board);

AND on April 17, 2024 And June 25, 2024 the Review Board held a hearing pursuant to section 672.81(1) of the Criminal Code and made a disposition;

THE REVIEW BOARD ORDERS AND DIRECTS that the accused be detained in custody and reside in the Forensic Psychiatric Hospital subject to the following conditions:

1. THAT he be subject to the direction and supervision of the Director, Adult Forensic Psychiatric Services (the Director);
2. THAT, at the Director's discretion, he may have escorted and unescorted access to the community, having regard to his mental condition and the risk he poses to himself or others;
3. THAT, at the Director's discretion, he may have overnight stays in the community for a period not exceeding twenty-eight (28) days for the purpose of assisting in his reintegration into society;
4. THAT he not acquire, possess, or use any firearm, explosive, or offensive weapon;
5. THAT he not use alcohol or any drugs except as approved by a medical practitioner;
6. THAT, at his discretion, the Director may monitor the accused's compliance with this order by testing using urinalysis for the use of alcohol or unprescribed drugs and the accused shall submit to such testing upon the demand of the Director;
7. THAT he have no direct or indirect contact with V.C., S.G., M.C., or B.P.;
8. THAT he keep the peace and be of good behaviour; and
9. THAT he present himself before the Review Board when required.

THIS DISPOSITION TAKES EFFECT on June 25, 2024.
